Insurance woes sink regatta

Because of soaring insurance costs the Twelve Mile and Little Boshkung Lakes Association will not be having a regatta this summer, it was learned at the association's annual meeting August 1.

Association president Ted Rainey said the regatta, a 25-year tradition, had to be cancelled because insurance for the one-day event is beyond the association's financial means. The total cost for the 1986 regatta amounted to less than $400. This year, however, the association was told that the cost of insurance alone for the event would run as high as $2,500.

"I hope FOCA will bring pressure to bear (on the insurance companies) and we can get the regatta back next year," Rainey told the members gathered at the Red Umbrella Inn.

Jean Anthon, President of the Federation of Ontario Cottagers Associations, said FOCA is following up on the problem. She said some other cottagers' associations have asked regatta participants to sign waivers in an attempt to avoid law suits. However, she warned that waivers do not provide a solid defense in court.

Rainey said that if a reasonable insurance package cannot be had, the association will have to decide whether to abandon its regattas all together. In order to meet the present cost of insurance, he said membership rates would have to be raised to $20 a year. He said this would likely cause a reduction in membership numbers.

One member suggested that FOCA should consider a method of bypassing insurance companies by setting up a self-insurance scheme. Anthon said this is an option that could be considered.

Waterways study

Input is important

Public input will play a large part in determining what will be addressed in the post audit of Trent Severn Waterways, says project coordinator Stu Bridgeman.

Bridgeman, who works for the Niagara Falls consulting firm Acres International, says the post audit will be carried out in two phases. "The first phase is to find out what the concerns are," he said. The public hearing slated for August 16 at the Haliburton Legion Hall will be part of this process.

Through these hearings, Acres will compile information submitted by the public and concerned committees to determine what should be addressed in the second phase of the post audit. Bridgeman says he expects concerns raised at the hearings will be of a broader nature than what the study plans to address. He said the post audit will deal with concerns regarding the operational procedures of the system rather than structural facilities. "There will be no recommendations about structural facilities," says Bridgeman.

In 1973 Acres conducted the first audit setting up a computer model of the Trent Severn Waterways which demonstrates the affects any localized changes will have on the rest of the system.

That same computer model is still in use by Parks Canada, which controls the waterways. Bridgeman says advancements in this sort of technology since 1973, warrant an updating of the present model.

The second phase of the post audit will involve developing an actual working plan. What is to be included in this depends largely on the input provided at the public hearings.

McKnight recovering

Former Anson, Hindon and Minden Township Reeve Lyle McKnight arrived home Thursday after undergoing a heart bypass operation at Toronto Western Hospital eight days earlier.

He is recovering in "leaps and bounds" his wife, Linda, said on Friday. "Everyone says it is a piece of cake, but he was a pretty old man there for a couple of days."

McKnight, 57, was serving his first term as township reeve when he suffered a stroke in February of 1985. At that point he stepped down from council.

He is now recovering well from his July 29 bypass operation and was even out for some fresh air on Friday. Linda praised the staff and facilities at the hospital, saying everyone was so calm and positive.

"It's hard to believe it's all over and behind us," she said. "It's so good to be back to Minden."

Police briefs

The design calls for the addition of 18 chronic care beds to the present ten bed acute care facility. This will be accomplished by adding eight double rooms and two

Another improvement which coincides with the addition is the relocation of the helicopter landing pad. Because the addition will encroach on the present

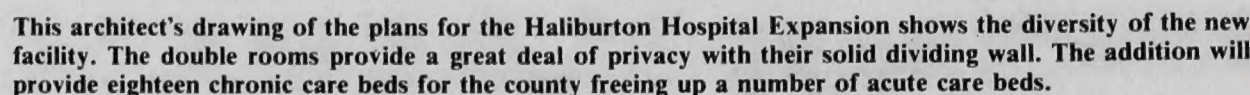

One such aspect is the location of the nursing station. Had the plans called for an additional nursing station, it would cost close to $100,000 a year in salaries alone to staff that station around the clock. To avoid this, the nursing station will be located at a central position in the hospital.

The money already raised is nearing the target figure, and Dawson says generous donations over the next month could help clear the final hurdle before construction begins.

MNR counts on cottagers

It is up to cottagers to ensure that the quality of area lakes can be maintained, FOCA President Jean Anthon told members of Twelve Mile and Little Boshkung Lakes Association at its annual meeting August 1. "Cottagers have done more to ruin lakes than anyone," Anthon told the large gathering at the Red Umbrella Inn. She urged those present to check with the Ministry of Natural Resources before they do any work to their shorelines. By building docks or moving rocks, cottagers could unknowingly be ruining a spawning bed for fish, she said.

At the same time, Anthon urged cottagers to notify the ministry whenever they see any shoreline development being carried out on their lakes. "The ministry depends on us to tell them when a bulldozer is coming in," she said.

Ministry approval is necessary for various kinds of shoreline development and it can verify if the work being done has been authorized. Anthon said there are hefty fines in place for those convicted of carrying out unauthorized shoreline work.

Anthon said the ministry is usually willing to co-operate with people who want to make improvements to their shoreline. "Just ask the MNR for some help first," she urged.

Speed limits

Anthon also reported that some area cottagers' associations are attempting to implement speed limits on their lakes. Because of problems with speeding boats, she said Mountain Lake is hoping to establish a speed limit of five miles per hour within 100 feet of the shore.

Anthon said that if Twelve Mile and Little Boshkung Lakes Association is interested in this, they are looking at about a two-year process before it can be implemented. The first step, she said, is to have the municipality endorse the request. From there it would go to Queen's Park and Ottawa for approval.

While she agreed that enforcement could be a problem, she said the fact that limits are in place might encourage boaters to slow down.

Reassessments

Anthon reported that FOCA plans to be involved in any hearings regarding plans to implement full-market value assessment for taxes in Haliburton County.

"I'm not sure market value works at all in cottage country," Anthon said. "If anyone is going to be hit (with higher taxes) the cottagers are."

Citing the recent happenings in Muskoka, she said taxes would have gone down under this system for 70 per cent of the property owners. The other 30 per cent, mainly cottagers, would face an increase.

She noted that the last assessment update in this area was nine years ago. A lot has happened since that time, she said. The municipality has not kept up to date on additions, she said.

Hospital fund

Not to be outdone by other cottagers' associations, members of Twelve Mile and Little Boshkung Lakes Association voted to donate $200 plus half the proceeds of their annual dance to the Haliburton Hospital Expansion Fund.

Association president Ted Rainey said it is crucial that a good facility is available in the area. He encouraged members to approve the request.

computer model, a system of flood forecasting was implemented since 1973. This hourly or daily model complements the reservoir operation model, says Bridgeman.

The open house session on August 16 will run from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. at the Haliburton Legion Hall. Bridgeman will be on hand at this meeting along with key staff members John Richie and Duncan Norie to address concerns.

Signage

Association member Charlie Black agreed to chair a committee to investigate avenues of funding for signs identifying properties and access roads.

President Ted Rainey said it is important to have these signs in place for emergency services. He said it can be confusing trying to describe the location of a property over the phone in an emergency situation.

Earlier in the meeting, Anthon cautioned that the signs have to be approved by the MTC. She said the ministry has indicated that the signs posted on Gull Lake are all illegal.

Chemical spray

Residents have a right to request that the Ontario Hydro work crews not spray defoliant near their property, an association member said. The member said Hydro crews are using sprays such as 2-4D, which is akin to agent orange, to control brush around the hydro lines.

If people are willing to keep the brush under control themselves, they can request that the defoliant not be used.

A new slate of officers was elected to represent the association through the coming year. Elected by acclamation are Lou Tompkins, treasurer; John Paul, secretary; Gord Brown, vice president, and Tom Bennet, president.

The final hurdle

The most difficult part to any race is the final few yards toward the finish line. This same logic seems to hold true to fund raising campaigns. And as the Haliburton Hospital Expansion Fund approaches that mark, they could find that funding will be somewhat harder to obtain.

By late last week, the public sector had reached $206,000 toward its $240,000 goal. This is an impressive sum to be raised over a relatively short period of time and reflects a strong commitment from county residents to improved hospital facilities.

The campaign has seen great support from all corners of the county for the facility which will provide 18 chronic care beds where none previously existed. However, what is surprising to learn is that this total amount accounts for contributions from just 1,600 donors. This is a lot of money given by a few country residents.

We realize that many people do not have the financial resources to afford a large donation. However, a large number of small donations can go a long way toward helping the hospital reach its goal.

Let's all kick in as much as we can afford to make the final elg of this campaign an easy coast to the finish. At one time or another, the hospital expansion will benefit us all.

A cool drink.

Promises not met

Editor:

Re: Your August 3, 1987 Editorial entitled "Remember the Promises".

I was very impressed with your editorial regarding the upcoming election.

In particular, the last two lines which read: "We urge all voters to listen carefully to the platforms and base their decisions on this information. And after September 10, let's remember the promises and make sure our representative follows through."

How do we ensure that the promises made during an election campaign will be honoured once a candidate has been elected?

On April 2, 1985, John Eakins during his election campaign was quoted in the North Kawartha Times as saying "Wherever possible we should be keeping the schools in the communities. It's a big issue. It should be debated in the legislature."

The people of Northern Victoria County have worked extremely long and hard trying to convince both the Victoria County Board of Education and the Ministry of Education that to close the five northern schools would be a terrible hardship both to the children and the communities involved.

To my knowledge the only time Mr. Eakins has mentioned the Northern Schools issue in the legislature since the last election, was on February 2, 1987 to announce that funding was being made available for the consolidation of the five northern schools.

Repeated visits and correspondence to Mr. Eakins by many of the electorate from North Victoria County has been in vain.

Mr. Eakins has yet to fulfil his 1985 election promise!

Story held errors

Editor:

Thank you for the article "Outspoken Irwin" in the July 27 edition, though not for the photograph which confirmed my conviction that I should avoid the camera! And I thought I was looking rather well, at least agreeable, that morning.

But I must correct some factual errors. To the best of my knowledge none of my family ever worked at a lumber camp. Actually we were on holiday from Toronto in August, 1914, camping by Shadow Lake (then Big Mud Turtle) when Tom German's model lumber gang - see Nila Reynolds' "In Quest of Yesterday" - came down the lakes and camped on their allotted sixty-six feet of shoreline directly in front of our tent.

See pp. 15, 16, "Three Lives in Mine".

Nor was I ever head of the English Department at Humberstone or elsewhere. The Classics Department, yes, for twenty-seven years. And there are only two baby loons.

Canada World Youth

Ahmareen Farah and Karen Morris are this week's featured Canada World Youth participants. During their stay in Haliburton they are living with Bob and Joan Stinson of Willow Beach Cottages. Ahmareen and Karen are among the 14 CWY participants from Pakistan and Canada who arrived here July 22 for the first half of their seven-month exchange.

Ahmareen Farah
Pakistan

I used to think that writing something is not difficult and that I can write on any topic offered but right now I have a feeling that writing about yourself is the most difficult work. Still I would try to tell you about myself briefly. I cannot proceed until and unless I give you my name, so here I am. My name is Ahmareen Farah and I am a student ambassador from Pakistan on Canada World Youth Exchange Programme.

I am from the city of Islamabad which is also the capital of Pakistan. I did my B.S.c in Home Economics but then I changed my track and right now I am a student of Pakistan studies. I joined this subject because I wanted to adopt the superior civil services of Pakistan in future as a career. I am a member of a family of ten, my eight siblings and two parents.

Among my courses I like "foreign policy" the best and I found it very interesting and it has definitely broadened my view toward international affairs. Among my other interests are travelling, reading, I love music and I have also won several prizes in debates, singing competitions, quiz, and flower-arrangement.

CWY is a wonderful programme and I am selected for this programme because of my gold medal in academic area and for other extra curricular activities. I am living with Bob and Joan Stinson these days and my counterpart is Karen Morris. They are wonderful people to be with and I am getting along with them very well. I am enjoying each and every part of this programme and I am very thankful to God for providing me this opportunity which very few fortunate ones get.

Karen Morris

Hi, my name is Karen Morris. My hometown is in Southern Ontario called Drayton (pop. 800). I am now residing in Waterloo and am attending University of Waterloo. I completed my first year there and have taken a year of absence to participate in Canada World Youth.

I was introduced to CWY by a good friend of mine who went to British Columbia and Thailand last year. He arrived home and had raving reviews about the places he had been and the program itself.

I applied and was accepted. Right at the moment I am staying and working at Willow Beach Cottages with Bob and Joan Stinson. It was actually Joan's idea to take us in for 3 1/2 months and Bob keeps insisting that it is because Joan is afraid to be left alone with him. Both have a great sense of humour and are easy to live with.

A large part of the program is "counterpart relations". I work and live with Ahmareen and even though we do have opposing views on things it is interesting to find out why we both hold those views. We learn a lot from each other and at the same time have great fun. So far the program, my host family, my counterpart and the people of Haliburton have been good to me. Thanks!

Dorset acid rain report

The following report on precipitation was gathered at the Ministry of Environment acid rain testing station in Dorset and compiled by Environment Canada. There was only one precipitation event recorded during the latest reporting period.

- on July 29, one mm of rain, with a pH of 4.1, from Lake Superior and Lake Huron.

Environmental damage is usually observed in sensitive areas regularly receiving precipitation with pH less than 4.7. Readings of 4.0 pH or less are considered dangerous. The lower the reading, the more acidic the precipitation.

Economic development project lauded

-by Bill Scott MP-

A consultation process on the future direction of Native economic development programs delivered by the Department of Regional Industrial Expansion (DRIE) was officially launched July 24, 1987 by Bernard Valcourt, Minister of State (Small Business and Tourism) and Minister responsible for DRIE's Native economic programs.

DRIE has a wide range of programs which assist Native entrepreneurial and economic development initiatives, and which are targeted to all peoples of Aboriginal ancestry. These programs include the Native Economic Development Program (NEDP), the Special Agricultural and Rural Development Agreements (Special ARDA) and the Northern Development Agreements (NDA). "We are undertaking this consultation process because the views of Native people and others involved in this field are essential to ensure that DRIE continues to complement and support the present and future economic needs of Canada's Native community," Mr. Valcourt said.

The Minister stated that the consultation process should be concluded within six months, and that the findings will guide the development of future DRIE Native economic program activity. The consultations will be carried out by a three-person team headed by Lawrence Gladue, a Native person who has extensive senior management experience in Native programs and who is familiar with the economic challenges and opportunities facing Aboriginal people.

The consultation process will be overseen by a Review Group in which representatives of all national Native organizations have been invited to participate. These Native organizations include the Assembly of First Nations, the Metis National Council, the Native Council of Canada and the Prairie Treaty Nation's Alliance. The Review Group will be chaired by Mr. John McLure, Assistant Deputy Minister, Native Economic Programs for DRIE.

The consultations will take place in every region of the country through meetings with selected participants representing Native communities and organizations, provincial governments and the Native and non-Native private sectors. Discussions will focus on a consultation paper that poses fundamental questions on the scope and nature of DRIE's current Native economic programs. The design and format of the consultation process has been the subject of prior discussions with representatives of Native organizations to ensure that it will address the key program issues which Native people themselves have identified.

Individuals who would like to know more about the consultation process or obtain copies of the Consultation Paper, will be able to phone a special toll-free telephone number for further information. The number is 1-800-267-9378.

Racers challenge Gull's fury

The Canadian National White Water Championships should prove to be an outstanding event for competitors and spectators alike, as the country's best paddlers challenge the fury of the Minden Wild Water Preserve on August 29 and 30.

Publicity chairman Robert Grose says the race is unusual this year in that the Ontario Provincial Championship will coincide with the nationals. The races are also considered open events, meaning that anyone in the Canadian White Water Affiliation can enter.

With this being an open event, it should be more entertaining for spectators, says Grose. The top calibre competitors often make things look easy, he says. However, with some entrants who might not be quite up to this skill level, spectators will be treated to more spills, which give a better indication of how difficult the course truly is.

"This should make for a wide range of paddling skills and the Gull River is considered to be one of the most challenging for racers in Canada," Grose said in a press release.

Competing in the event will be the 18 members of the Canadian National White Water team that has just returned from the World Championships in Bourges, St. Maurice, France. Although the Canadian team did not win any medals against world's best racers, they will be out to prove their standing at the nationals, says Grose.

The schedule for this event will see the racers trying out the water from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. on August 29. Following this, course construction will take place, including hanging of the poles and a number of trial runs to test the competitive level of the course. From 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. there will be non-stop practice runs as racers familiarize themselves with the course in preparation for Sunday's races.

The first runs start at 10 a.m. on the Sunday, with second runs following from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Awards presentations are slated for 5 p.m. on Sunday.

Construction work is continuing on the Gull River to constantly improve the course to make it as challenging as possible and to prepare it for the possibility of holding a World Championship Race for the 1996 Olympics.

Already considered a world class facility, the Minden Wild Water Preserve will be host to a major International race in July 1988 and 1989. The 1989 World Championships are to be held on the Savage River in Maryland, USA in 1989 and the pre-Worlds in 1990. Canada will be hosting a race in July on the weekend immediately following each of these events.

This will put the Minden Wild Water Preserve on show for the top International paddlers from all over the world and will again let the Europeans see the location as a future site for the 1995 World Championships or the 1996 Olympics.

"The White Water Slalom is very close to officially being included in the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona, Spain and we are hopeful that it could be included in the 1996 Olympics and that Toronto will be the host for these games," said Grose. If this should occur then the Minden Wild Water Preserve would be the likely location for the event.

"In the interim we will continue to improve the Preserve and hold International Races to get the recognition and publicity necessary to be considered as a host to either the World Championships or the Olympics," said Grose.

Outlawing of tobacco ads

by Bill Kulas

The sale of tobacco products ranks right up there with the sale of items such as gas and alcohol as a big source of taxation revenue for the government. Even though the price of tobacco items continue to rise every time a new budget is announced, people continue to smoke regardless of the proven health risks associated with smoking.

In recent times the Federal Government has introduced a new proposal called bill C-51. The main objective of the bill is to ban all forms of tobacco advertising in Canada.

The tobacco industry is fighting back and lobbying against the passage of the bill. Here are some of the arguments the tobacco industry is using: Tobacco is a legal product and ~~it~~ ^{it} not be exempted from the general rules governing the manufacture, distribution, sale or advertising of goods and services in Canada. Bill C-51 contains the seed of censorship and raises the spectre of similar and arbitrary treatment of other products, such as liquor, spirits, beer, soft drinks, junk food and others which are the object of the

are the object of one controversy or another. The Bill will leave Canadian tobacco product manufacturers defenseless against foreign manufacturers as "overflow" advertising coming in from foreign countries, especially the United States, would not be stopped by C-51. Bill C-51 will have an economic impact on advertising agencies, newspapers, magazines, outdoor advertisers, and will deprive them of important sources of revenues, costing them jobs. The Bill will deprive a sizeable number of arts, sports and others from sponsorship dollars; one way or another, it will reduce the total amount of sponsorship dollars available to these groups. The Bill may deprive many Canadians access to arts and sports events that are popular and appreciated. Tobacco advertising does not increase the size of the tobacco market, bans on advertising do not reduce the size of the market. Tobacco advertising only serves to attract smokers from one brand to another. Tobacco advertising does not play a role (or, perhaps, a most insignificant one) in the decision of adults or children to take up smoking.

Is the tobacco industry right? What do you think? Let us hear your concerns.

Kennedy wins jackpot

More than 400 happy bingo players were on hand for Bingomania in the Minden Community Centre August 2 with a total jackpot of $1,500 to be won.

However, few left the hall with a wider smile on their faces than Horseshoe Lake resident Lillian Kennedy. She was the winner of the final $1,000 jackpot.

Garth Gammon who organized the Minden Rotary Club's bingomania, says this is the largest jackpot ever offered at one of their bingos. Prior to the main jackpot there were five games worth $100 each, building up to the $1,000 game.

The next bingomania is slated for September 6 and the same great prizes will again be up for grabs.

The Rotary Club also runs regular weekly bingos, which is one of the main sources of funds for the club's community projects.

A gaggle of geese calmly swim along the river, oblivious to the nearby action as people frantically add the final touches to their floats in Glebe Park in preparation for Wednesday's Rotary Carnival Parade. Thousands of people were lined up shoulder to shoulder all along the parade route for this annual event.

Did you know?

by Doreen Hawman

Did you know as a newly licenced driver you are placed on probation for a two year period?

Probationary driver status applies to a newly licenced driver regardless of age.

After spending a one-year period without any demerits it is locked in so that if a problem should arise in the second 12-month period, the first year will not be affected. Should a probationary driver receive a total of six demerit points during the probationary period, his or her licence will be suspended for 30 days.

Every probationary driver must complete two 12-month periods without a licence suspension.

The Haliburton County Information Centre has just received from the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, several informative brochures covering topics such as seat belts, winter driving, drinking and driving, school bus stopping laws and a schedule outlining demerit points. For further information or to receive copies of these brochures, drop in to the centre, situated in the Drag River Municipal Building, Maple Ave., open Monday - Friday 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. or call 457-2733. The Minden centre located in the Municipal Building, Milne St. is open every Tuesday 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. or call 286-4100.

Consider becoming a volunteer, you will find it a very rewarding experience.

Juniors trounce Bracebridge

submitted by Jim Milne

Dixie Lee defeated the spirited Bracebridge Juniors in Minden July 29 by a resounding score of 8 - 0. This is the third game Dixie Lee has won by a wide margin and as before each goal cannot be described in detail.

The first goal of the game, however, could have been an indication of things to come. Ivor Thompson scored while attempting to lob a pass into the Bracebridge goal area. A defender tried to block the pass by heading the ball, but he misplayed it instead and re-directed it past his goalie into the net.

At the end of the half Dixie Lee only led 2 - 0; however, the Dixie Lee goalie had only handled routine shots, another indication of the rout developing.

Dixie Lee scored early in the second half and five other goals came at regular intervals thereafter.

although Mike Hatkoski, playing in his last game had to wait until the 30-minute mark before scoring the first of his two goals for the night.

Ivor Thompson led the team with three goals. This was a satisfying result for Thompson whose name doesn't often appear in the statistics although he is as effective in offense as defense. They are the first goals he's scored so far this season. The following had one goal each: Joe Mancuso, Tom Eager and Hans Walter.

To be fair to Bracebridge, it must be said that it is difficult for a visiting team to assemble a team for a 7:00 p.m. kick-off on a Wednesday because of job commitments. In addition this young team refused to lose their composure as the score mounted.

On the other hand, Dixie Lee worked five substitutes into their starting eleven. In a close game this heavy traffic in and out would probably disrupt team play. It is important, however, to have ample substitutes ready for the playoff tournament when the team could play two full games two days in a row with little rest in between.

Dixie Lee have now played six games in a row without a defeat which includes a win by forfeit and a tie. Andy Shapiera has his second shut-out, and must be ranked one of the best goalies in the league. Three games remain in the regular schedule including two home games.

Library goals given approval

Final approval was recently given to a revised Mission Statement and Goals by the Haliburton County Library Board. These two important philosophical statements represent another major step forward as a result of the operational audit begun during the last few months of 1986.

"The audit showed many inconsistencies and areas of concern that had evolved over the years and also identified areas which had to be addressed if the system is to be able to both provide the services that are being demanded of it now and to anticipate new ones which will be developing in the future," said Joel Levis, County Librarian.

"To plan properly, you must know where you are going and what you want to do," he continued, "and these documents when considered alongside the Materials Selection Policy and the Statement of Intellectual Freedom passed last year will help us to no small degree."

The documents themselves serve largely to consolidate and codify many policies and procedures already in place in a philosophical sense and in many respects, merely serve to outline the broad, general direction for the library service to pursue.

In summary, the Mission Statement provides a broad, general outline of where the system should be going in terms of who it will serve, to what extent patrons can expect service, sources of funds and how collections will be developed. Service to children and information services are recognized as being worthy of the general interest of the board.

Goals are defined as "ideal destinations" and represent where library service should be under ideal conditions.

"Obviously, the goals will never be reached" Mr. Levis indicated, "but they are heights toward which we will strive and attempt to attain."

The operational audit is ongoing and results will be considered by the board as appropriate.

All activities of the Haliburton County Library Board are funded by the County of Haliburton and the Province of Ontario through the Ministry of Citizenship and Culture. On the strength of this support, the board strives to serve the whole community and develop individual and group interests through the provision of those materials and services which will both encourage and enhance the development of cultural, informational and recreational needs.

The board will strive to achieve this goal through active acquisition of materials, their efficient effective organization and accessibility to the residents of the county. These books, periodicals, newspapers, pamphlets and other valid forms of media will satisfy the needs of their patrons in becoming well informed, decide important questions, cultivate imagination, refine tastes and to enjoy leisure through use of well-supported and promoted services.

Service will be made available through approved service points to ensure access for all. Other levels of accessibility will be assured through other service modes. For example, books-by-mail, which will meet the needs of those who, for reasons of physical infirmity or geographical location, cannot utilize the services of the library to meet their needs.

Service to children is one of the major interests of the board and as such, the board should aim to extend, cultivate and encourage lifelong education and to promote the voluntary, individual enjoyment of reading by children through use of public library resources.

The Board has a special responsibility to meet the educational needs of individuals and groups in the county and as part of this programme, the library should provide:

1. Expertly selected books and other materials for use in the development and enrichment of the whole community.

2. Advice and guidance in the use of these materials.

3. Information and research services to aid in the search for knowledge and learning.

4. Co-operation with groups and agencies in the community in the stimulation of both educational and cultural activities.

5. Sponsorship of discussion groups, institutes and film forums to encourage continuing learning through the use of books and other materials.

Goals

The Goals of the Haliburton County Library Board will be:

(more on page 14)

Royal gift

The kids and staff at Camp Illahee were presented with a tremendous gift last week on the behalf of the Duke and Duchess of York.

The gift, a large pontoon boat was originally a gift from the province to the royal couple during their visit here. In turn, they turned the craft over to Camp Illahee when their visit to the province was over.

Dave Sands, executive director of the camp, said the boat could not have come at a better time. The pontoon boat they had used in the past was in rough condition, and he said they did not have the finances in place to replace it.

Sands says the boat will be put to good use at the camp. He says it will be used almost daily for the many events and activities carried out there.

In presenting the boat Tuesday afternoon, Tourism Minister John Eakins said he is delighted the gift could be of such a practical nature. "It's better than a fur coat," he joked.

Following the ribbon cutting ceremony at the beach, Eakins was invited to take a cruise of the lake with some of the staff and kids from Illahee.

Tourism Minister John Eakins, gets some lessons in handling a pontoon boat from Tracey Ellison, one of the campers at Camp Illahee. The boat was presented to the camp last week. The boat, a gift from the people of Ontario to the Duke and Duchess of York, was in turn, given to the camp.

Hole in one

A golfer's dream came true for Lee Andrews of Mississauga July 30 on the Blairhampton Golf Course.

Lee scored a hole in one on the course's number six hole. Using a six iron, she scored the ace on the 164 yard hole.

Golfing with Lee at the time was Marion McGiffin.

Correction

A correction to the list of winners for the sixteenth running of the Heineken Yard, as carried in last week's edition of The Times. The winner of the camp award, the AMICI Cup went to a team from Onondaga Camp. Team members included Dave MacKay, Scott Sullivan and Drew Carnwath.

Gull Lake regatta

submitted by Jim Sward

The Gull Lake Cottagers' Association 63rd annual regatta was held on Saturday, August 1.

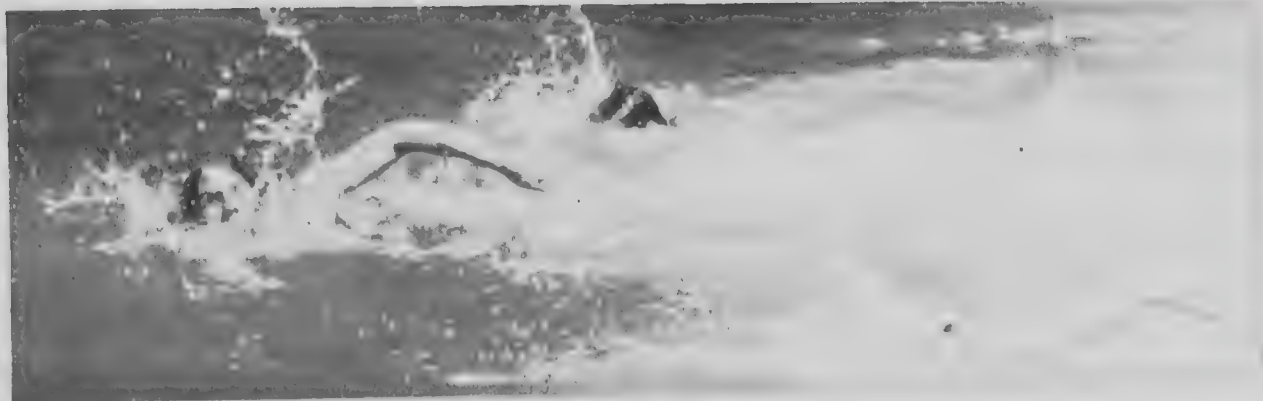

The day started with sunshine and a light breeze for the open sailing race conducted by Bill Williams. Lazars from Camp Onandaga dominated the day with Kevin Hurd placing 3rd, Andrew Yates 2nd, and Kristin Doucet placing 1st and receiving the Duncan trophy.

The windsurfers drifted out of University Bay just after noon hour and Ben Bradshaw was the first to complete the course. Chris Burkett placed second with Peter Dance coming third.

The Gull Lake 2nd Annual Fishing Derby had taken place a week earlier and the winners were recognized at the regatta. The largest bass was caught by Ken Flaherty, the largest lake trout by Jim Sward and the most rock bass by Jeff Gordon.

The Bedlington Cup is

awarded to the person 16 or under who accumulates the most points in the various canoeing and swimming events. Paul Sward was the winner and the presentation was made by Mrs. Lyndsie Lewis who won the cup in 1924, 25 and 26. The runner-up was Kelly Williams with Heather Koopman and Kim Sharpe tied for third.

For the ages 12 and under Don Treadgold presented the Treadgold trophy to Sarah Hagerman. Andrew Kirk placed second and Robbie Barrett, Eric Angevine and Fran Jewett tied for third.

The top canoeist over age 17 was Brenda Jewett and she was presented the Minto Trophy by Mr. Bob Minto. The Gull Lake mixed terrain race was won by the team of Peter Elmslie (running), Vicky McLaren (swimming) and Andy White (canoeing).

The Crerar family paddles were awarded to Paul Sward and Heather Koopman. The Earl family paddles were presented by Cathy Nutt to Andrew Kirk, Sarah Hagerman, Fran Jewett and Kim Sharpe.

1987 marked the first year for a series of field events for children 10 years old and under. Gwen and Rick Emery organized and guided approximately 50 children through six different events. Every child won! This along with the Grandparents Events were the highlight of the regatta this year.

The weather was perfect regatta weather as over 200 people gathered at University Bay for the events. Association President, Dennis Flaherty did an excellent job as Master of Ceremonies for the awards presentation.

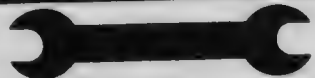

Canoe races were among the many events at the day-long regatta.

A tropical Christmas

South Lake Tent and Trailer Park celebrated "Christmas in July" on the 25th. There was a competition for the best decorated trailer in the park.

Judging was done by Doug Kent (Baptist minister residing at the mobile) and his friend Kelvin. This was a difficult job as "all" the trailers were done up nicely. The winners were first Peggy Brown and Howard Fellick winning a thermos container. Second place went to the Dunn family winning an organizer and third place to the Taylor family winning a tea towel holder and tab opener. We all thought Harold and Jerry's tree should be mentioned along with his Christmas music even though they didn't win.

We had a pot luck supper with the following in attendance: Andrews family and Andrea Box, Smith family and Ken, Ms. Jo Richardson, Thompson family and Jason, Grace Holman, Gwen Donald and Ruth, Ben and Mary, Arkley family and friends (11), Keristan, Williams family, Jack and Anne, Taylor family, John Kerin, Peggy Brown and Howard Fellick, Henderson family, Ward family, Davis family, Edith and Jim D'Angelis, Vera and Earl visitors from Manilla and Doug and Yvonne Kent and Kelvin.

The pot luck commenced with Doug Kent leading us with Grace. After dinner Santa Claus arrived by boat with his stocking filled with goodies for the kids. "Ho, Ho, Ho."

Then the adults received their gifts and all enjoyed them. A good time was had by all.

Later on the kids and big kids had a hayride followed with a water fight.

Another year to wish Jim Dunn happy birthday.

The Christmas tree that Dick and Eleanor gave Edith and Jim was decorated in the rec hall.

We have two new residents now at SLTP. Their names are Edith and Jim. They are two male rabbits (we hope!)

Bill and Mary and visiting this week with Edith and Jim D'Angelis.

We decorated a float for the Rotary Carnival Parade on Wednesday with Karen Leaman and Wayne Mahaffey as organizers with a little help from the parents (Dunn's, Thompsons, Leamans, D'Angelis, Box, Ken).

Couple celebrates 50th

Tom and Ann Hurrta of Minden had two opportunities to celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary. The couple marked the occasion in June when they returned to their native Finland. At that time, they joined Tom's brother and his wife in a double celebration. And, just last week, the couple were guests of honour at a party at their residence on the Gull River.

The August 1 celebration was held under bright sunny skies with guests enjoying the pleasant riverside setting. The couple's two children, Tom and Lynn, along with their families, organized the afternoon.

During the afternoon, Reverend Ed Moll of Minden United Church officiated as the couple rededicated their wedding vows.

Tom and Ann were married June 17, 1938 in Toronto where they lived until moving to Minden 13 years ago. Several years prior to the couple's marriage, Ann's parents had purchased a farm in the Gelert area. They visit the Highlands on numerous occasions and became very familiar with Minden.

They purchased the Anson Street lot in 1967 and, using weekends and holidays, built their home. Tom, who was a civilian employee of the Department of National Defence as a carpenter, retired in 1974 and the couple moved to Minden.

Assisting with the organization of the anniversary celebration were their son Tom and wife Jean of Brampton, daughter Lynn and her husband John MacDonald of Russell, near Ottawa, John's mother Mary MacDonald of Glace Bay, Nova Scotia was also in attendance and spent time visiting with the couple. Also on hand were three grandchildren.

Many friends from the immediate area attended the gathering along with Ken and Jean Scott of Willowdale, Brian and Doris Long of Bowmanville, Carl Snider and his 94 year old father of Ottawa and Brian and Ellen Relph of Unionville, among others.

Tom and Ann Hurrta celebrate their 50th.

Full houses at Gallery

by Virginia Muenzel

It was so great to see a gallery full of people twice last week. On Tuesday, July 28, John Leonard and an excellent crew of volunteers did a superb job of auctioning off a room full of art and other various donations from SSFC summer school faculty, HHGFA board members and a host of people and businesses who care about our lovely gallery.

We don't have all the figures yet, but we know that both the sales and the attendance were up over last year. I want to thank everyone involved.

Then on Friday evening, July 31, over 200 people crowded into the Gallery to see Haliburton art at its best. Of course, this person is highly prejudiced, but when you walk into a gallery smelling faintly of bulrushes, with walls full of birds so real they threaten to fly away, one cannot help but feel very excited. David Alexander Risk is someone we can claim with pride. His work is complimented by the distinctive stone carvings of Derek Green and the lovely wood carvings of Louis Perna.

Then, in the Waiting Room, Mary Hastings and Charles O'Neil fill the room with People and Places. Mary's faces are so expressive. Chuck's buildings full of stories. If you've never been before, and want to see the very best that Haliburton has to offer ... go to the Rails' End Gallery before August 23. You may even hear the ~~noise~~ of the loons.

At 7:30 p.m., August 10, the Spinning and Weaving Guild will meet at Wendy Bateman's studio on Bluehawk Lake with Wendy and Stephenie Gausted from California. The theme is Spinning for Fun.

On August 15, as part of the pioneer demonstration at the Haliburton County Fair in Minden, there will be a "Sheep to Shawl" contest. It begins around 1 p.m., after the parade and will probably last two or three hours.

The purpose is to have fun showing people how wool off a sheep's back goes all the way to m'lady's back, with all the steps in between.

This is a two-team event. With the exception of Bill MacMaster, the shearer, they are all members of the Haliburton Highlands Hand Weavers and Spinners. The weavers are Judy Chapman and Thelma Dair. Spinners are Shirley Hodgson, Ev Saxby, Dorothy Jean Connors, Dorothy Way, Ester Lee, Ted Walper and George Boate. And who better to supervise this happy group than our own Ted Carson, who will also act as an alternate spinner. This has to be fun!

Hearing test to be offered

You are invited to attend a Free Hearing Test Clinic. This is sponsored by Haliburton County Home Support Services and the Canadian Hearing Society. The funding for this project is provided by The Trillium Foundation.

The hearing test is to be held on a first-come first-serve basis. The test takes about three minutes per person. The Hearing Society Toronto office sends their van equipped with sound-proof booths, an audiologist and three students. The audiologist reads the hearing test scores and if further testing is needed a referral slip is issued. If this test result indicates that a person requires further testing, information about how to proceed will be provided by representatives from the Peterborough Canadian Hearing Society office who will be attending the Hearing Test Clinic.

This service is offered to everyone, there is no criteria as to who receives the service. In other words, one does not have to be a senior citizen to receive the free test. Seniors are encouraged to attend the Hearing Test Clinic as hearing loss is a characteristic of aging.

Locations are as follows: Wilberforce Arena, Tuesday, August 11, 1987, 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Haliburton County Home Support Services (located on Maple Avenue opposite Emmerson Lumber), Wednesday, August 12, 1987, 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

UNDER LOCK AND KEY

We're all security-conscious these days. We're investing in good locks for our doors and windows, to keep out unwanted intruders.

Then why invite them in?

When you advertise your house for sale - on a lawn sign or in the newspaper - you're announcing that you will open the door to anyone who says he wants to buy. If you list your phone number and get a call from a prospective "buyer", what do you know about the person who's calling?

You need a way to tell the good guys from the bad guys, the real prospects from the sightseers. And that's just the function a good real estate agent serves - asking the questions that should be answered BEFORE a stranger walks into your home. Best of all, the reputable agent comes in with the prospect.

For your security's sake, list with a professional.

Night cramps

Dr. Stephen Dawson is a Medical practitioner serving the Minden community who writes a weekly column on health matters for The Times.

This article is in response to Mr. Henry Weibert's request on information about Nocturnal (night-time) leg cramps.

These are a common and troublesome problem we see often, but fortunately almost never associated with any serious underlying disease. They occur in the calves with a firmness and bulging in the involved muscle. There may be several episodes each night causing severe distress and the muscles may remain sore for several hours. The "Restless Leg Syndrome" also occurs at night and in addition to the cramps, there is often a creeping sensation, jerking, twitching arching and numbness, and is treated similarly.

Important conditions to rule out are poor circulation, nerve damage in diabetes and other disorders and problems with disturbances in metabolism.

The classic treatment for nocturnal leg cramps is Quinine Sulphate at night time. This is believed to work by stabilizing the membranes around the muscle cells, and diminishing the excitability of the muscles. Many patients will remain free of symptoms after stopping the quinine sulphate and only occasional doses are necessary thereafter.

Vitamin E, has been reported effective in one large but uncontrolled study. This means that the design of the experiment was not necessarily done properly and that the results of the experiment have to be interpreted accordingly. Nevertheless, many patients would at least like to try Vitamin E first, before trying other drugs. The dose is 400 International Units a day.

Several other drugs including Benadryl, Robaxin, Chloroquine and Dilantin have been tried but so far there is very little evidence to support using any of these drugs before quinine or Vitamin E is tried.

Other measures to try are calf muscle stretching exercises and modification of sleeping positions. These treatments are the least thing of all to try and are as free of complications as the condition they are designed to alleviate.

If you have any topics you'd like to have discussed please feel free to contact the Minden Medical Centre.
